

TAFT IN FIGHT TO CONTINUE PARTY

NOT WORKING FOR ANY PERSONAL REASON OR REWARD

President Will Take Active Part in Re-organization and Rejuvenation of the Republican Party But Not as a Presidential Candidate for 1916.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 26.—President Taft has quietly informed friends that no matter how active his participation in a re-organization of the Republican party may be, he is not to be regarded or publicly referred to in political speeches by Republicans as a possible candidate of the party in 1916.

The president has made it plain that he does not wish to be considered as in anyway having an eye on the first place on the Republican ticket four years from now. He intends to do all in his power to help rejuvenate the party and probably will make many political speeches before March 4th, and after he returns private life; but according to close friends, he is in the fight to continue the party and to try to return it to power as a man who has been its standard bearer for four years and not as a man seeking a re-nomination four years hence.

These facts have been developed here during the last few days in connection with the discussion of a proposed gathering of Republican leaders during the winter, to formulate plans for bringing Republican factions together. Within the last week, nearly a dozen Republican national committeemen have called at the white house for brief conferences either with the president or with his secretary, Charles D. Hilles who was chairman of the Republican national committee during the campaign. A meeting of Republican leaders to be held at New York or Washington some time early in January is now being considered, but plans are as yet indefinite.

President Taft and Mr. Hilles are being urged to take part in the movement to establish active, "militant" headquarters for the party, to open at once and to lead a general party re-organization movement during the next four years. It is said President Taft may actually become the active leader of the movement to strengthen the party ties, but if so it will be with the understanding that he does not undertake it with any pre-arranged plan that he is to be the candidate for president in 1916.

The Republican committee men who have been in Washington recently have offered various suggestions for the re-opening of party activity. The majority of them favor a general publicity and educational campaign to strengthen public support of Republican principles and to place the party in a position to take advantage of "any mistakes" the Democratic administration may make.

The president is expected to speak at a Republican dinner in New York some time in January but it is said here that there has been an understanding that no speaker at the dinner, whenever it is held, shall refer to the president as the prospective Republican standard-bearer in 1916. His endorsement of the dinner idea is said to have been contingent upon such an understanding.

IS FOUND GUILTY OF ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO COMMIT MURDER

Chicago Man Whose Infatuation for Married Woman Leads Him to Desperate Methods Receives Sentence.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Two months ago, Joseph Miloro met Mrs. Flora Bouche. He became infatuated with her and she declared sought to have her run away from her husband and children with him. Today after a jury before Judge Kersten had listened to Mrs. Bouche, Miloro was found guilty of assault with intent to commit murder. The verdict carries with it a sentence of from one to fourteen years in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Bouche declared that Miloro repeatedly declared his affection for her and threatened to shoot her if she did not follow him away.

"He tried to shoot me, but the bullet just grazed my head," the woman said.

FOUR CONVICTED GUNMEN OCCUPY CELLS IN PRISON DEATH HOUSE

Are Taken From New York City Prison to Sing Sing Under Heavy Guard.

Ossining, N. Y., Nov. 26.—The four gunmen convicted of connection with the killing of Herman Rosenthal in New York City and today sentenced to death, reached here this afternoon and were lodged in the death house at Sing Sing in cells adjoining that of Charles Becker.

The wives of "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood" and "Whitey" Lewis' sister were permitted to walk with their relatives from the train to the prison. Sheriff Harburger and a heavy guard of deputies escorted the gunmen and hundreds of Ossining people joined the procession.

The four men filled the last vacant cells in the death house where there are now seventeen men awaiting electrocution.

INTRODUCES TESTIMONY IMPLICATING OFFICIALS

CLAIM EXPLOSIONS FOLLOW REFUSAL OF CONTRACTORS TO UNIONIZE JOBS

Witnesses Testify That Explosions Occurred After Contractor Had Been Personally Visited by Union Officials in Attempt to Unionize Jobs Under Construction.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., NOV. 26.—As tending to show the implication of labor officials in plots, the government introduced at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today testimony that explosions on non-union iron work followed the refusal of contractors to unionize their jobs after personal visits by some of the defendants.

Before two charges of dynamite exploded on a bridge in St. Louis, Aug. 9, 1908, John T. Garrett, president of a construction firm, testified he was visited by John H. Barry, of the local iron workers' union.

"Barry wanted me to unionize the job," said Garrett. "He said, 'you'll find it a great deal cheaper, for you know what will happen.' I told him I suspected he was going to dynamite the job, and he had better be careful. It was blown up later."

Questioned by Chester Krum, counsel for Barry, Garrett said the union official, referring to dynamite, declared "he didn't do that kind of business."

Wallace Marshall testified that while putting a job at French Lick, Ind., he had been visited by Fred Sherman, union business agent. Sherman told me I had better unionize the job," said Marshall, "but I lost my temper and told him I would have nothing to do with the murderous, dynamiting iron workers. An explosion occurred in March, 1911."

F. J. McCann said his firm suffered three explosions on jobs at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1910 and one in Erie, Pa. 1911, after he had been visited by John T. Butler, vice-president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

"Butler told us we would be sorry when we refused to deal with the union," said McCann.

Relative to the government's charges that the forty-five defendants aided in the illegal transportation of explosives, many trainmen testified about trains on which Orle E. McManigal and the McNamara brothers traveled. One porter told of luggage carried by James H. McNamara, when the latter went from Chicago to Oakland, Calif., in June, 1910. It was on that trip that McNamara after visiting Seattle and San Francisco blew up the Times building in Los Angeles.

PHYSICIANS DID NOT ENTERTAIN SUSPICIONS OF FOUL PLAY AT DEATH

Testify in Lesh Trial That Symptoms Produced by Woman's Affliction Were Similar to Those of Poison.

Sedalia, Mo., Nov. 26.—After three witnesses had testified in the trial of Mrs. Pansy Ellen Lesh, charged with the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Quintance at Green Ridge, Mo., in 1904, Sheriff Henderson was put on the stand late today to testify that Mrs. Lesh had repeated to him details of the confession in which she told the police of Los Angeles that she had administered poison to Mrs. Quintance. The defense objected and after argument court was adjourned until tomorrow.

F. F. Quintance, a brother-in-law of the dead woman, and Doctors Claybaugh and Ferguson, all testified that on the night before Mrs. Quintance died she had suffered from a stomach illness accompanied by vomiting spells, but that she showed no positive symptoms of poisoning. It was brought out that the woman had been afflicted for years with strangled hernia and the physicians said symptoms produced by her affliction were similar to those that might be produced by the poison Mrs. Lesh is said to have administered.

The physicians said they were surprised that Mrs. Quintance's death occurred when it did, but did not entertain suspicion of foul play.

WILL PRESENT BILL CREATING STATE BOARD OF ARBITRATION

To Make It Compulsory on Employers as Well as Employees to Submit Difficulties before Strike or Lock-Out is Declared.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 26.—Action in the Illinois general assembly along the lines recommended by the board of arbitration in the wage dispute between the eastern railroads and their employees is probable, in the coming session. Senator Edmund Beall of Alton today declared that he would present a bill creating a state board of mediation and arbitration. The measure is to be drafted by Meyer J. Stein, law secretary of the state senate.

The outline of the proposed measure which has already been drawn up, makes it compulsory on employers as well as employees to submit difficulties before either a strike or a lockout is declared.

Failure to present the points at issue to the state board before strike or lockout is put into effect, under the terms of the proposed measure would constitute a misdemeanor.

The board is to be composed of five men appointed by the governor, the members of the board to receive no pay except while actually at work. For time spent in adjusting any labor dispute the members of the board would receive $10 a day, half to be paid by the employer and half by the labor organization affected by the appeal to the board.

CONVENTION CLOSING.

Philadelphia, Nov. 26.—The convention of the National Woman Suffrage association closed today after the adoption of resolutions on several important subjects. The resolutions demand an equal standard of morality for man and woman; commend the government for its efforts to end commercialized vice and to the end that was might be prevented.

There was only one session of the convention today which was held principally to revise the constitution of the organization. A change of the manner in voting so that the delegates might cast their ballots individually instead of by states was the only important one made.

INDEPENDANT HARVESTER CO. DOUBLES ITS BUSINESS ANNUALLY

A. H. Bayston of Harvest'r Company of Plano, Ill., Testifies to Rapid Growth of Independent Concern.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—A. H. Bayston of the Independent Harvester company of Plano, Illinois, today in the government's suit to dissolve the International Harvester company, testified to the rapid growth of the Independent concern, which now has 25,000 stockholders.

Mr. Bayston said that for a three year period the Independent Harvester company had doubled its business annually and was selling an output that totalled close to three-quarters of a million dollars per year. He repeated the story of the organization of the Independent Harvester company which he said had been created along co-operative lines to a considerable extent. He said that the concern had an authorized capitalization of $10,000,000 of which about $5,000,000 had been paid in. Other witnesses were J. L. Smalley, vice-president of the Smalley Manufacturing company of Manitowish, Wis., and J. E. White of Rockford, Ill., sales manager for the Emerson-Brantingham company. Both testified as to the output of the plants. Mr. White also told of the various branches and branch houses of the Emerson-Brantingham company.

FOGEL DENIES ALL CHARGES AGAINST HIM

HAS RESIGNED PRESIDENCY OF PHILADELPHIA BASEBALL CLUB

Before National League Magnates Fogel Makes General Denial of All Charges—Alleges Statements Attributed to Him Were Made by Philadelphia Professional Man.

NEW YORK, NOV. 26.—Horace Fogel, president of the Philadelphia baseball club, announced here this afternoon coincident with a meeting of National league magnates called to consider charges against him, that he had resigned the presidency of the club on November 22nd and that Alfred Wiler, had been elected to succeed him.

Mr. Wiler is a lawyer and a stockholder and vice-president of the club. All clubs were represented at the league meeting. Seven distinct charges were made against Mr. Fogel alleging that he had issued false and slanderous statements which would make for public distrust of the National league, that the St. Louis team had played weak teams in the field against New York; that the National league pennant race of 1912, was not properly conducted; that the race in question with the umpires had "been fixed for New York to win"; that the umpires had been "fixed" for the same end; that Philadelphia did not receive a fair deal; and that Mr. Fogel caused the statements in question appear in a Chicago newspaper on Sept. 28th.

Mr. Fogel's reply was a general denial of the charges. He alleged that the statements attributed to him were made by a Philadelphia professional man and that when he heard of it he remarked that there were too many safe-guards thrown about baseball for such a thing to occur.

Replying to questions today as to whether he believed the pennant race, league officials or President Lynch were "crooked," Fogel replied in each case "no." At the same time, it was given out, Fogel declared that the Philadelphia team had gotten a "rotten deal" and had received it consistently for the last three years.

Several New York newspapermen testified that they heard Fogel make the statements attributed to him. Several Philadelphia newspapermen testified to the contrary, attributing the statements to a Philadelphia professional man as Fogel had asserted in his reply to the charges.

The league adopted resolutions deploring the death of President John T. Brush of the New York club and paying tribute to his worth as a baseball man and citizen.

Reports in baseball circles here have it that Fogel's resignation was coupled with even more interesting developments—that Christy Mathewson, pitcher for the Giants, would purchase the Philadelphia club with financial backing assured, although unidentified.

STRIKE OF TRAINMEN THROWS THOUSANDS OF MEN OUT OF WORK

Edgar Thomson, Homestead Plant and Carrie Furnaces Closed—Only a Few Smaller Mills in Operation.

Pittsburg, Nov. 26.—Work at the Edgar Thomson and Homestead plants and Carrie Furnaces of the Carnegie Steel company tonight is at a standstill due to the strike of 625 trainmen. Only a few of the smaller mills are in operation.

The strikers today refused the offer made by the company, although the company is said to have agreed to every demand except the re-instatement of four discharged employees. The force of coal and iron police of the Homestead plant has been increased, although no trouble is expected. There are about 10,000 mill workmen out of employment because of the strike of the trainmen.

TAFT APPROVES ORDER GOVERNING FOURTH CLASS POSTMASTERS

Washington, Nov. 26.—President Taft today approved regulations governing the 50,222 fourth class postmasters throughout the country who have been placed under the classified civil service by executive order.

None of the fourth class postmasters will be allowed to take active part in political affairs. Those receiving less than $500 a year are not eligible for transfer, those getting that amount or more may be transferred to the rural carrier service after having passed the required examination. THOUSANDS GREET ACQUITTED MEN

ETTOR ADDRESSES GREAT CROWD AT LAWRENCE

Three Men Found Not Guilty of Murder During Textile Strike Return to Homes—Defend Teachings of Industrial Workers—History of Case.

Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 26.—Thousands of persons with red lights and cheers greeted the return to this city tonight of Ettore, Giovanni and Caruso, who were acquitted at Salem today of charges of murder in connection with the death of Anna Lopizzo during the textile strike here last winter. Women, with babies in their arms, joined in the demonstration, which gathered in volume as the crowd surged with the three acquitted men through the principal streets to Lexington hall, the headquarters of the Industrial Workers of the World. Cheering was continuous.

From every side street in the tenement district flooded hundreds of operatives carrying red lights. The throng in Lexington hall finally made conditions in the building so dangerous that Ettore was forced to ask them to leave. Then, from an open window he addressed the great crowd made up of mill workers of a score of nationalities.

Both Ettore and Giovanni declared that they owed their lives to the teachings of the industrial workers and a plea for his hearers to stand together to secure better pay and better working conditions.

"From now on," Ettore declared, "you know but one religion, one God and one country; that is working class solidarity."

Giovanni spoke in about the same strain.

"When pressed, the thing for you to do is to cross your arms, strike, and you will win," he advised.

The trial of J. J. Ettore member of the executive committee of the Industrial Workers of the World; Arturo Giovanni, a Socialist writer of Brooklyn, New York, and Joseph Caruso, a mill worker, came about in consequence of the strike in the textile mills in Lawrence, Mass., suddenly precipitated January 12 last and continued for two months. Ettore and Giovanni were accused as accessories before the fact to the murder of Anna Lopizzo, who was killed in a street riot. The commonwealth maintained that they incited the riot in which the woman met her death by inflammatory speeches to the strikers. Caruso was accused, with Salvatore Scuto, who never has been apprehended, with actual participation in the riot.

Clashes Were Frequent.

The strike, which was accompanied by much violence enlisting organized and unorganized workers on one hand and mill owners on the other, with the police of Lawrence and the militia of Massachusetts on guard to avert disastrous consequences, attracted world-wide attention for many weeks. Riots were frequent; cars in Lawrence were attacked; men, women and children who attempted to work were assailed and in some cases injured, and there were repeated clashes between strikers and the organized forces of the law until citizens of Lawrence were alarmed at the threatening struggle. Its climax came on January 20, a day begun with a parade of agitated foreign workers to demonstrate their solidarity against the mill owners and ended with a riot in which the young woman was slain and Oscar Benoit, a Lawrence policeman, stabbed.

Even congress was appealed to during the struggle following an attempt of strike leaders to take from Lawrence to Philadelphia a hundred children of strikers' families to be cared for by sympathizers. This effort, preceded by successful deportation of strikers' children to New York and other cities, was frustrated by the police in a clash at the railroad station in which fathers, mothers and children clashed with the authorities. Many men and women were arrested. This occurrence, widely heralded, aroused protests from all parts of the United States and prompted Victor Berger, Socialist member of the house of representatives to plan a congressional investigation of the strike and working conditions in the mills of the American Woolen company and others. A resolution directing such an inquiry brought about a preliminary hearing before the rules committee of the house in which Lawrence strikers, men, women and children, representatives of the mill owners and representatives of the Lawrence authorities, participated. The hearings held in the caucus room of the house office building in Washington aroused intense interest, hundreds of persons, including Mrs. Taft, wife of the president, attending them for several days. No congressional action however, was recommended.

How Strike Began.

The strike began on January 12 when workers in mills of the American Woolen company left their looms in protest against a reduction without notice of two hours pay a week in consequence of their going

POWERS PRESENT GREATER PERIL

Danger of Greater War than that of Balkans Confronts Europe

BRITISHERS ARE UNEASY

British Public Would Pursue Policy of Neutrality in Case of Conflict.

ALL ARMIES ARE MOBILIZING

LONDON, NOV. 26.—The possibility and danger of a greater war than that between the Balkan states and Turkey absorbs public interest far more than the first bout of diplomacy between the belligerents outside of Constantinople. The steps towards mobilization which Austria and Russia are taking, although but preliminary precautions have made possible a vision of the vast consequences, which, as far as Great Britain is concerned, are considered nothing less than appalling. Apparently the British public has no desire to sacrifice lives, money or paralyze commerce. Yet it is uneasy, because ignorant of how far Great Britain diplomatic engagements with France and Russia extend in the direction of an alliance, and of how much likelihood there is that a conflict in which or both of its partners in the entente may be engaged. The liberal press is unanimous in urging Great Britain to preserve neutrality. The majority of the conservatives demand the same policy. The Times declaring that none of the European peoples wants war, says:

"Yes that is where the nations are blindly drifting."

It asks, "who then makes war?" and replies, "the answer is to be found in the chancelleries of Europe among men who too long have played with human lives as pawns in a game of chess and who have become so enmeshed in the questions which the jargon of diplomacy that they have come to be unconscious of the poignant realities with which they trifle."

The Pall Mall Gazette, almost alone speaks in a warlike voice. It declares:

"England ought to act firmly with France and Russia in refusing simply to be swept aside. If the conference desired by the British government is refused, we ought to face the alternative and stand by our friends."

The mobilization of the Austrian and Russian armies requires weeks for what Germany and France can accomplish in days. In Russia's case this is on account of the vast distances the troops must travel; in Austria's, because the units of the army are on a peace footing, which is only one third of their war strength. Therefore, considerations of safety compel them to begin when the danger signals are remote. England, France and Germany are playing a peace-making role, their efforts are directed apparently in keeping together in a compact to refrain from taking up piece-meal the questions which the war raises, and defer their consideration until the general conference. The withdrawal of the Austrian warship at Constantinople to join the fleet is taken as an unfavorable sign and the imminent Serbian occupation of Durazzo on the Adriatic Sea, tends further to bring Austria and Serbia toward the breaking point. On the other hand the safe arrival at Uskup of the Austrian consul Procasia, who it was learned, had been killed, should lessen the tension and the fact that the Austrian ambassador lunched today with the Russian emperor would seem to indicate that the relations between these two powers are still cordial.

London, Nov. 26.—The latest news received here tonight forebode the breakdown of the armistice negotiations, probably over the demand of the Bulgarians for the evacuation of Adrianople to which Turkey will not listen.

The Turkish view is that while the allies have no more reserves which they can draft upon, Turkey is drawing a plentiful supply of fresh troops from Asia and is able to continue the war for another year. The Turkish military authorities assert that Adrianople can holdout for another month and that the Tshatalja lines are impregnable.

Hence Turkey's position is not desperate enough to warrant her accepting humiliating terms.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—With the completion today of the official canvass of the vote cast in Cook county at the election Nov. 5, announcement was made by the election board that the Prohibition and Socialist labor parties had forfeited their legal right to a place on the official ballot by reason of the small vote cast for their candidates.

Under the law a political party is required to cast at least 8,000 votes in Cook county. At the last election the Prohibition party cast 2500 votes while the total vote cast by the Socialist Labor party was 2,172. At the next election both parties will be required to go on the ballot by petition.

DECKER CASE OCCUPIES TIME OF MORGAN COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

Testimony Has Been Concluded and Part of the Argument Has Been Heard—Case Likely to Reach Jury by Noon Today.

The trial of J. E. Decker and William Hale, charged with burglary and larceny, proceeded in the circuit court Tuesday with the taking of testimony and argument presented by several of the attorneys. Others of the attorneys will speak this morning and then the jury will receive instructions. It is likely that the case will get to the jury by the noon hour. W. T. Wilson and F. E. Baldwin addressed the jury for the defense Wednesday and T. Forrest Smith and Hugh Green for the prosecution. It is probable that State's Attorney Tilton and Judge Barnes will speak this morning.

The charge against the defendants is that they with William Flynn, Lee Flowers, Leonard and Lionel Hare burglarized and robbed the McCarthy-Gelbert cigar factory last February, taking cigars to the value of $50.

As mentioned previously William Flynn, Lee Flowers and Lionel Hare have been at the St. Charles Home for Boys and were brought here to testify in this case. The boys all gave testimony on behalf of the state, the trend of their evidence being that Decker planned the robbery and then got the boys to do the job. They testified that Decker helped them get into the building and that after the cigars had been secured that they were taken to Decker's home. James Trahey gave evidence to the effect that he saw the cigars at Decker's home and A. J. Gelbert testified as to the location of the factory and the value of the cigars taken.

Decker himself took the stand in his own behalf and entered a general denial to the charges made against him. Character witnesses brought forward by the defense were A. P. Vasconcellos, John A. Vasconcellos, Chief of Police Davis and D. Estaque.

CARNEGIE EXPLAINS PLAN FOR PENSIONING EX-PRESIDENTS

Cites Cases of Three Former Presidents as Affording Justification for Project.

New York, Nov. 26.—Andrew Carnegie in a statement tonight announced that all but $25,000,000 of his fortune, which will be disposed of under his will, will be left to the Carnegie corporation of New York, which has been made his residuary legatee and which will carry on his educational and charitable work. Mr. Carnegie's statement likewise explains his reasons for planning to pension ex-presidents of the United States as he provided for recently through the Carnegie corporation.

In explaining his pension plan, Mr. Carnegie cited the cases of three former presidents as affording justification for the project, the announcement of which he said, was "making the desired impression."

His trustees and himself were all hoping, he said, that congress would meet the situation "by proper action."

"Not one of us but will rejoice should this be the result," he said. "We were very careful to provide that only in case congress failed to provide pensions to ex-presidents the corporation would stand ready to do so. It is properly the province of the nation to act. We all feel that."

Mr. Carnegie referred to a recently published letter which dealt with the circumstances of Grover Cleveland after his retirement from the presidency.

"I know about Mr. Cleveland," said Mr. Carnegie in his statements. "He told me of an offer he had to serve as director in an important institution which would give him a salary. Finding the other directors had no salaries, he declined the offer saying his name was not for sale."

Mr. Carnegie's other references were to Presidents Lincoln and Grant the last named having been pressed for funds even while yet in the white house, the iron master declared, while he quoted from a letter written by Mrs. Lincoln to show that President Lincoln's family was similarly embarrassed.

WITNESS DESCRIBE DEFENDANT'S ALLEGED FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS

Government Witnesses Testify in Trial of George Fitzgerald, Charged with Embezzling $173,000.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—More financial transactions alleged to have been made by the defendant were described by government witnesses today in the trial of George Fitzgerald, charged with the embezzlement of $173,000 while employed in the United States sub-treasury in Chicago. A deal in Chicago City railway bonds for $2,080, made through Edwin L. Lobdell company, March 8th, 1910, figured in the testimony. Theodore Weiss, cashier and Irving Randall, both of the Lobdell firm, told of the bond transaction, but neither could identify the purchaser as the defendant, Fitzgerald.

Mr. Weiss testified that the amount was paid in currency, there were one thousand dollar bill, and one hundred dollar bill, he said. Mr. Weiss looked at Fitzgerald and says he was sure he not not the man who got the bonds.

William C. Pratt, who was cashier at the sub-treasury in 1902 and 1903, testified that on August 20th, 1908, Fitzgerald had loaned him $500. A loan of $1,000 made by Fitzgerald to the witness in November of 1907, also was mentioned. Frederick M. Mercer assistant cashier of the Drovers National Bank, was questioned regarding a note for $1,200 which was negotiated at the bank on January 22nd, 1910, payable to George W. Fitzgerald. The witness said that the bank had received 23 shares of preferred and 11 1/2 shares of common stock in the Illinois Car Manufacturing company as security.

GOVERNOR-ELECT SUGGESTS EQUALIZING.

Body Can Be Dissolved By Legislative Act.

Springfield, Nov. 26.—An announcement came from Judge Edward F. Dunne today, in the form of a suggestion that it may not be necessary to amend the constitution to get rid of the state board of equalization.

The Chicago Civic Federation and other reform organizations which have been trying for years to change the taxing system in the state have been under the impression that the only way to do it is to amend the tax clause of the constitution of 1870. They have had resolutions pending in the legislature for this action during the past two or three sessions.

Now Judge Dunne says: "My present opinion is, that the board of equalization can be abolished by the legislature and a tax commission created to perform the present duties of the board without an amendment to the constitution." If his further investigation bears out this idea, he will include the suggestion in his message to the assembly.

PECAN CROP HEAVY.

The present season is remarkable for the unusually heavy yield of soft shell pecan nuts. The Illinois river valley is lined with trees and for the first time in many years the crop is a heavy one. Tons have been gathered in the timber along the river and loaded into scows and steamers for hauling to market. Agents from the wholesale commission houses have been busy along the river buying the cargoes. Such activity was never previously known.

Recently however there has been a decided slump in the pecan market and instead of shippers paying fourteen cents per pound the prices offered are seven and eight cents. As a result there is little activity among pickers for they cannot make wages at these figures.

JACKSONVILLE ELEVEN HOPES TO WIN FINAL CONTEST

Local Football Squad Practicing Hard for Final Game Against Springfield on Thanksgiving Day—Students Will Have Special Training.

One of the biggest high school football games of the season will be the final contest pulled off in Springfield Thursday afternoon, when Coach Buland takes his warriors there to fight it out against the Springfield eleven. A special train is being planned for to convey a crowd of rooters to Springfield, which will leave here at 10 a. m. and returned at 10:30 p. m. The J. H. S. men realize that they have the hardest game of the season before them and with Springfield confident of piling up a big score fans are going to see some rare playing. Coach Buland is making no brags about what his team will do. He stated last night that they were in the pink of condition save for a man or two and he expected them to give a good account of their season's coaching. The Springfield News in speaking of the coming contest says:

"If Coach Weber's men win their game against Jacksonville high school at League park on Thursday, they will possess the clearest title of all the schools in central Illinois to the championship of that territory. If they don't beat Jacksonville, they will end their season in extreme disfavor with the fans, but Coach Weber says they will win."

"The local squad hasn't lost a game this year. It has tied two, one against Urbana and one against Jacksonville, in a battle at that place some weeks ago. The rest of its games have been won by comfortable margins. Normal high school, clutching a big zero, was buried under a score of 112. Mattoon, the opponent of the Red and Black last Saturday, lost by a score of 92 to 0. Taylorville, the only outfit met by the locals that possessed a plausible claim to the championship, fell before the onslaught of Coach Weber's lads."

No Slump Expected.

"The game at Jacksonville which terminated with no score on either side, awakened the severest criticism from the coaches for the local eleven, which played far below its usual form in that game. That is one of the reasons why Coach Weber is sure his men will win Thanksgiving. They will not be likely to slump again after the splendid record they have made since the earlier Jacksonville battle."

League park will be filled so full that space in the grand stand or bleachers will be as scarce as maiden ladies at a mothers' meeting when the big crowd gets together to witness the final contest of the season. Tickets for the game have already sold by hundreds and the sale is nothing compared to the business that will be done at the gate."

THOUSANDS GREET ACQUITTED MEN FARM BOY IN RUNAWAY GETS LOST WITH TEAM OF HORSES

into effect a new state law restricting labor to fifty-four hours a week. Rioting about the mill gates immediately followed, and on the following day Ettor, a young Italian American labor leader from Pennsylvania went to Lawrence to take charge of the strike for the Industrial Workers of the World and to organize the dissatisfied and unorganized army of laborers.

By January 15, 30,000 persons were idle; the mills were closed; special police were sworn in to aid the regular force in preserving order; state troops were ordered to Lawrence by Governor Foss and an industrial crisis was at hand. Ettor assuming command of the workers' cause, announced that the strikers demanded a wage increase of fifteen per cent, abolition of the premium system and double pay for overtime. Numerous conferences were held with state bodies and mill owners and a strike committee was organized of representatives of each nationality involved in the conflict, including Italians, who were most numerous, Poles, Syrians, Lithuanians, Hebrews, Americans and others.

During the progress of the trouble Ettor frequently addressed the masses in churches, halls and on the Lawrence Common. In keeping up the enthusiasm thus he was aided by Arturo Giovannitti, who went to Lawrence from Brooklyn, William D. Haywood, the leader of the Industrial Workers of the World, and many others prominent in the work of the organization. For many days the situation in Lawrence was tense, with outbreaks of violence constantly agitating the public mind. On January 29 seven sticks of dynamite were found by the police in houses and shops in the Italian quarter. Suspicion against the strikers was directed at once, and six persons, Italians and Syrians, were arrested. Ettor was informed by Colonel E. Leroy Sweetser of his grave responsibility in the matter. Ettor immediately told the strikers that none of their people had anything to do with the dynamite and charged that the mill owners had planted it to prejudice the cause of the strikers. Subsequent investigation resulted in the conviction of a Lawrence school commissioner for planting the dynamite. Later business men and William Wood, president of the American Woolen Company, were indicted for conspiracy to plant dynamite in Lawrence. This development served to intensify the bitterness of the conflict and Lawrence was at fever heat.

Conferences to settle the strike had failed, and the morning of January 29 an organized street parade and demonstration by the strikers occurred. It was preceded by rioting before sunrise in which the street cars were pelted with chunks of ice and other missiles and persons forcibly prevented from going to work in the mills. After the parade Ettor and Giovannitti addressed the strikers in Lawrence common where they are alleged to have urged the strikers to acts of violence. That evening the streets near the mills were jammed with the idle millworkers. Soldiers and police were ordered to clear the streets. The spirit of the hour was a dangerous one. The people sullenly responded to the orders of the police and hissed them. Many blocks of ice were thrown at the officers of the law. Policemen's clubs, in retaliation, were wielded over the backs of recalcitrant strikers, when suddenly shooting began and Anna Lopizzo fell lifeless in the street. Other riots followed the next day and that midnight Ettor and Giovannitti were arrested, charged with being accessories before the fact to the Lopizzo murder. Later Caruso was arrested, charged with Saboteur Scott, as one of the principals to the crime as an actual participant in the fatal riot.

The arrest of Ettor and Giovannitti fanned to a fury the flame of feeling among the agitated foreigners and conditions were even more dangerous. Threats were made of a general strike, organizations throughout the country and in other lands protesting against the action of the authorities. Ettor and Giovannitti, pleaded not guilty on January 31, but were held to the grand jury without bail and locked up in the Lawrence jail until February 9, when after a hearing, they were held to the grand jury and later indicted. The strike continued under the leadership now of W. D. Haywood until March 14, when the cause of the workers was victorious and the strike was officially declared off. The workers gained increases in pay ranging from seven to fifteen per cent, and concessions in working conditions.

Indictment of the strike leaders and Caruso brought about an organized world-wide effort to raise a defense fund and workers from many countries responded. Threats of a general world strike were made, against the action again were made, and since the beginning of the trial Lawrence has been flooded with circulars denouncing the agents of the courts and the conditions of the case. Threats to storm the jail have been made and feeling has run riot up to the very close of the case. When the trial began a twenty-four-hour strike of protest was responded to by fifty thousand workers in mills throughout New England.

The case, after several delays, was actually taken up early in October in the Superior Court of Essex county before Justice Joseph F. Quinn. Efforts to get a jury exhausted a panel of 300 veniremen, and another delay until October 14 followed. When taken up again a jury was procured within two days and the Commonwealth began the presentation of testimony October 16. District Attorney Henry C. Attwill had charge of the case for the Commonwealth. J. P. S. Mahoney, for Ettor; W. Scott Peters for Giovannitti; James H. Sisk, for Caruso; with George E. Roder, Jr., and Fred H. Moore as advisory counsel, conducted the defense.

Drives All Day and Night Monday and Tuesday—Is Found Near Arcadia Last Night.

A German boy in the employ of Arthur Dunlap, residing east of the city, who was sent out by Mr. Dunlap Monday morning about 9 o'clock with a team and failed to return, was found Tuesday evening at the home of Spencer Carpenter, near Arcadia.

The boy, who has only been in this country a short time, can speak but little English and had been employed by Mr. Dunlap for a little more than a week. When he failed to return with the team Monday some were prone to believe that he had stolen the horses, but when found Tuesday evening he said that the horses ran away with him and that before he could get them under control they had taken him into strange territory with the result that he was lost. The boy said that he slept under the wagon Monday night, building a fire so that he could keep warm. He was traced to several places around Arcadia and Virginia, but it seemed that when he approached a town he would turn around and go in another direction. Late Tuesday evening he was found at Mr. Carpenter's home, where he put up the horses. Mr. Dunlap was notified and he took the boy and the team to his home Tuesday night.

ELECT ANTI-WOMAN SUFFRAGIST.

London, Nov. 26.—Woman suffrage received a set back and the unionists gained a seat in the bi-election held today in the Bow and Bromley districts of Tower Hamlets. The Unionist candidate, Reginald Blair, defeated G. Lansbury, Laborite 4,042 to 3,291.

Mr. Lansbury resigned his seat in the house of commons in order to test the feeling in his constituency on woman suffrage of which he is one of the warmest champions. He was enthusiastically supported by the suffragettes who provided him with an abundance of motor cars to convey the voters to the polls.

DREW LESSONS

FROM LIFE OF POE

Dr. Hancher Made Address to High School Students Tuesday.

The pupils of the high school enjoyed a rare privilege yesterday morning when Dr. Hancher appeared before them. He said he would present Poe's inimitable production, "The Raven," and first explained that it was the work of one of the great geniuses of the land but who had unfortunately lost the better part of his nature and had become the victim of despair. The raven personified sin and rebellion or despair and Lenore was the representation or the image of sinless and spotless youth so lost by the gifted writer.

As it was some years since he had committed the production to memory he read the poem and interpreted it as he proceeded. The different emotions were vividly portrayed, the laying of the hand on the heart, the languid reclining in the chair, the closing of the door, and the ways in which the deep passions of the poet were described were acted out and the recitation had a profound effect on the young people who were loud and long in their applause at the close.

As they were so insistent on something more the gentleman gave them some good advice. He said Poe was a man like a ship without a rudder, an engine without a governor, sadly going to destruction. He told in a vivid manner a tale of an engineer who stepped from the cab to talk a few moments with his wife while the little boys climbed into the place vacated by the father.

Having seen him pull the throttle they thought they would try it and in a moment the mighty monster was speeding down the track with no one in command, the terrified children sinking helplessly on the floor of the cab.

The operator wired down the road that a wild engine was coming and gave orders to sidetrack everything from the main line. A half-witted laborer in a distant yard heard what was coming and leaping into the cab of an engine speeded out on to the main line and toward the runaway engine. As he saw it in the distance he slowed up, stopped and slowly backed as it neared him till the pilots of the two engines touched but not violently. Then applying the brakes he managed to slow down both of them and ran the two to a sidetrack and into the yards where an engineer jumped into the cab and closed the throttle and how they praised the simple minded wiper.

He then urged his young hearers to be careful as they started out in life. Education was well; the storing of the mind with useful knowledge was all right, the best culture obtainable was a good thing but unless these are the acquisitions of a person with the guide of a moral character they are worse than none for they may all the better qualify one of do wrong and to accomplish more for evil. Only the great book of books, the bible, can supply the true guide in life; the rudder to the ship, the governor to the engine, and without this all the voyage of life may be "bound in shallows and in miseries."

Principal Gore said he was expecting Mr. Stahl, the baseball magnate, his intimate friend of years and fellow student and he was not aware why the gentleman had failed for he had meant to have him speak and would do so if he put in his appearance later. Mr. Stahl did come later but did not address the pupils.

Robert and Miss Catharine Thompson have gone to Oklahoma City, Okla., where they expect to spend the winter.

GEORGE A. WHEELER SALE

ATTRACTED A LARGE CROWD

Bidding Was Spirited and Every Thing Commanded Good Prices—Ladies of Hebrew Church Served Dinner.

A sale of the personal property of the late George A. Wheeler was held from the family residence, three miles northwest of Sinclair Tuesday. There was a large attendance and everything commanded good prices. The sale started at 10:45 and was over by 2 o'clock. The following prices prevailed—George Wheeler, Jr., purchased one horse for $100; Harry Norris, one span of mules for $410; one bunch of cattle went to Dimmitt Trotter for $46 and another bunch to Andrew Harris, Jr., at $35; 10 head of cattle went to A. D. Arnold at $30.50.

Hifers brought from $29.00 to $38.50; cows from $45 to $60; Timothy hay, 55c per bale; clover hay, 40c per bale; 11 brood sows and pigs, $24 to $48; spring shoats, $13.50 to $19.00; shoats, $7.90 to $8.25; fat hogs, $20 to $28.50. A large quantity of farm implements were also sold at a good figure.

The entire sale amounted to $6,500. J. G. Cox was the auctioneer with Robert Stevenson as clerk. The Ladies' Aid society of the Hebrew church served a splendid dinner and realized a neat sum.

A SHOPLIFTER RELEASED.

A short time since a clerk in a prominent dry goods store told the proprietor that a woman just leaving had stolen two pairs of stockings and other articles. The gentleman started after her and found her in another store and told her he wanted to speak to her. She at once saw what was up and began to beg.

He took her aside and charged her with the theft and she pleaded piteously to be released saying it would be a disgrace to herself and family were she arrested. She even offered ten dollars to be let off but the merchant said he didn't want bribe money but his goods.

The woman begged to be let off and her pleadings were so strong that finally the merchant agreed to let her go if she would return the goods which she promised to do but failed to show up.

The gentleman said they sustained considerable loss in this way and he felt it would be a good idea to make an example of some of the shoplifters and perhaps it would deter others from the bad business.

REV. J. C. NATE IS BUSY.

Today he goes to Champaign to attend the annual meeting of trustees of Trinity church, when Bishop McDowell and others will be in conference over the work for Methodist students in the University of Illinois. He will return in time to take part in the closing of the Wesleyan endowment campaign. Tomorrow Mr. Nate goes to Jacksonville where a campaign begins for raising $60,000 for the Illinois Woman's college, and he will remain there over Sunday, then returning to Bloomington.

PREPARING FOR GHENT ANNIVERSARY

New York, Nov. 26.—Plans for American participation in the celebration of the approaching centennial anniversary of the treaty of Ghent were discussed today at a meeting of the committee of arrangements in this city. The anniversary, which comes on Dec. 24, 1814 will mark the rounding out of one hundred years of peace between Great Britain and the United States. Many novel suggestions for the celebration have been received by the committee. Some of the proposals call for the holding of international peace conferences, the issue of memorial postage, coins and medals, the erection of peace monuments along the Canadian border and on the principal battle sites of the war of 1812, and a great marine peace parade through the great lakes from Buffalo to Duluth.

TILLMAN FIGHTS FOR CHILDREN

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 26.—In the South Carolina supreme court today Chief Justice Gary listened to arguments in the habeas corpus proceedings brought by Benjamin R. Tillman, Jr., to secure the custody of his two children. The marital troubles of the Tillmans are of long standing and culminated in the separation of the couple more than a year ago, since which time the children have been with their mother. Ever since the separation Mr. Tillman's father, United States Senator Tillman, has aided in the fight for the custody of his two grandchildren. In a most remarkable petition filed with the court, Senator Tillman admits that his son is a drunkard, but declares that he has now reformed and is a proper guardian for the children.

MISS MERRIAM WEDS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 26.—Miss Laura Merriam, the breaking of whose engagement with Congressman Theron B. Catlin of St. Louis created a mild sensation in society a short time ago, was married today to James Freeman Curtis of Boston, assistant secretary of the treasury. Not the least interesting feature in connection with the marriage is the fact that Mr. Curtis and Mr. Catlin were classmates at Harvard. The wedding took place this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, William H. Merriam, former governor of Minnesota, and Mrs. Merriam. Only a small company of relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

FIFTY YEARS IN PRIESTHOOD.

Temple, Texas, Nov. 26.—What is believed to be the first sacerdotal golden jubilee ever celebrated in Texas took place today in the neighboring town of Burlington, Milam county, where many members of the clergy and laity gathered to commemorate the completion of fifty years of services in the priesthood by the Rev. Father Lowery, pastor of the local Catholic church.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.
What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering, for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

CONCORD.

The funeral of John Martin Hamm was conducted from the residence Tuesday at 2 p. m., by Rev. J. G. Reed, pastor of the M. P. church, of which the deceased was a member, in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends, which attested the esteem in which this unassuming, unostentatious neighbor and friend was held. His place is void and will leave its impress on the lives of those with whom he was most intimately associated for higher morals, more integrity and higher ideals at all times. Certainly there was no questioning his principles in all dealings with his fellow men, as he never aimed to break the golden rule in any way. Suitable music was furnished by Misses Grace Reed and Alma Deterding and Messrs. Elmer and Spencer Smith. The beautiful floral emblems were tenderly cared for by his niece, Miss Gladys Smith, and granddaughters, Mrs. Alma Boyd and Miss Marie Moss. The bearers were Messrs. Arch McConnell, Lewis Rexroat, Lewis Yeck, Edw. Taylor, Charles Nickle and Wm. Cooper.

Lee Rexroat returned Saturday from Peoria, where Friday afternoon he had the honor of being initiated into the Ancient Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine and became a member of Mohammed Temple in Peoria, where a class of 70 was initiated (after which an elegant banquet was served them). The initiation was especially inspiring and impressive.

Mr. and Mrs. Bellman, nee Miss Rockwood, made quite an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Rayborn.

Mesdames Charles Park and Selbert of Jacksonville spent Tuesday with Mrs. Selbert's daughter, Mrs. John Kershaw, east of Concord, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Caldwell in their elegant automobile from Mr. Peterson's funeral; as they came from a visit with the Caldwell's at Concord, and also where Mr. Caldwell was threshing for Messrs. Hess, Kershaw and Yeck.

John Yeck and son, Arthur, returned last week from a visit to Chicago.

Mrs. Floyd Tomason and Mrs. L. B. Smith and daughter, Lillian, visited in Jacksonville Saturday.

GENERAL MARKET NEWS

WHEAT SLIDES DOWN IN PRICE
(BECAUSE OF EUROPEAN QUOTATION)

Trans-Atlantic Indifference to Alleged Chances That War Would Spread Takes Wheat Pit by Surprise.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Wheat slid down in price here today chiefly because European quotations appeared to make a war scare absurd. The market closed heavy, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 under last night. Corn finished 3/4 to 1/2 down, oats unchanged to 1/2 off and provisions varying from 1/2 to 1/4 decline to an advance of 5c.

Trans-Atlantic indifference to alleged chances that the war would spread, took the wheat pit by surprise. The result was the unloading of much of the grain recently bought. In addition to the leaders in short selling renewed their attacks.

Heavy receipts and a big increase in the visible supply tended further to discourage the bulls. The only sign of a rally came when gossip developed that a break had occurred in negotiations for peace. May wheat ranged from 90 1/2 to 91 1/4, with last sales at 90 1/4, a drop of 1/4 of 1c.

Larger receipts and fine weather depressed corn. Trade at times was rather slow. May fluctuated between 47 1/2 to 48 1/4, closing easy 1/4 net lower at 47 1/4 to 47 3/4.

Covering by shorts kept the oats market relatively steady. May, which sold from 32 1/2 to 32 3/4, closed 1/4 off at 32 1/4 to 32 3/4.

Stock yard houses unloaded provisions and discounted hog cholera reports. As a consequence active deliveries underwent a net decline of 5 to 7 1/2 to 17 1/2.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Nov. 26.—The erratic course of the money market today was reflected in operations in stocks, although quotations were appreciably steadier than was the case yesterday. Call money opening at 9 per cent quickly advanced to 12 per cent and renewals were made at 11 per cent as compared with six per cent yesterday.

After touching the high point the rate declined steadily, until before the close money was offered at 3 per cent. There was some further calling in of loans account of the demands of the interior banks and it was suggested also that "window dressing" for the expected call from the controller for a statement of the condition of national banks played a part in the action of the money market. The more urgent demands for funds were quickly satisfied, however, and during the last part of the day call loans were in small request. Time rates hardened in sympathy with the movement of call money.

The stock market was relieved today of pressure from abroad. On more reassuring news of the European political situation the foreign markets improved and there was a sympathetic advance on the home exchange at the opening. It was centered largely on the money market and when call loans rose to 12 per cent, quotations fell off sharply for a time. With the easing of money, however, the market steadied and toward the close prices rose to the highest point of the day. A number of the stand issues made net gains of a point or more.

The influence of high rates for money was reflected in the foreign market and exchange markets dropped below the recent low figures to the bottom quotations for about two years.

A further engagement of $500,000 gold for import from London was announced.

LIVESTOCK MARKET LETTERS

Chicago Market.
Chicago, Nov. 26.—Oliver S. Green with Herried & Co., U. S. Yards, Chicago, Ill., reports the estimated receipts for Monday, Nov. 26:
Cattle—13,000.
Hogs—43,000.
Sheep—45,000.

The decreased supply of cattle received today caused a reaction on bulk of medium to good cattle, 10c per hundred. There was a short supply of prime cattle and 27 short horns averaging around 1525 at $11, with a limited number $10.25 to $10.65, with a few odd loads at $10 to $10.15, but there was a short supply above $9.75. Plain and light steers get the least improvement. The bulk selling $5 to 20c below last week's best time, which was on Monday. There was only a short supply of rangers here and prime Canadians averaging 1500 at $9.80, others 1250 to 1500 $8.50 to $9.65. Butcher stock was uneven and only strong with last week's closing prices. Canners were dull, bulls steady to firm, calves steady, stockers and feeders firm on desirable kinds. Common grades dull, choice to prime heavy beefs, $10.25 to $11.

Good to choice heavy beefs, $9.65 to $10.20.
Good to prime yearlings, $8.40 to $10.60.
Common to medium yearlings, $6.50 to $8.25.
Good to choice corn feds, $8.55 to $9.60.
Medium to good short feds, $8.00 to $8.40.
Plain to medium short feds, $7.40 to $8.00.
Fair to good grass steers, $7.00 to $7.60.
Common to plain grass steers, $6.50 to $7.00.

Heifers, 3.75 to $4.25.
Extra prime selected heifers, $7.50 to $8.50.
Canners and cutters, $2.75 to $4.20.
Common heavy calves to good vealers, $3.75 to $9.50.
Good to prime vealers, $9.75 to $10.25.
Inferior stockers to good mixed feeders, $4.25 to $6.50.
Selected 850 to 1000 feeders, $6.85 to $7.50.
Good to choice, 800 to 1000 pound feeders, $6.25 to $6.75.
Early estimate was 35,000 hogs and the market opened 5c higher. Later when the estimate was raised to 42,000 or 43,000 the advance was lost, but the market closed full steady. Bulk sales $7.60 to $7.80 top, $7.90.
Sheep market was very dull, but lambs full steady. No change noted in the quality.
Montana wethers, $4.00 to $4.15.
Native lambs, choice to fancy, $7.10 to $7.25.
Native lambs, fair to good, $6.50 to $7.00.

Yearlings, good to prime, $5.50 to $5.85.
Yearlings, feeders, $4.50 to $5.25.

Kansas City Market.
Kansas City Stock Yards, Nov. 25, 1912.—Stock cattle and feeders did not change much in prices last week though the strength shown last Monday was gradually dissipated during the week and the finish was dull with 5000 head held over to this week. Purchases of cattle for the country here last week were 23,000 head, the same week last year 23,000 head. The greater demand was for light cattle, though eastern buyers took some half at steers for a short feed at $7.75 to $8.65. Stock steers ranged from $5.00 to $6.90, and good feeders up to $7.50. A year ago the same week top stockers brought $5.15, and the best feeders $5.75. Missouri buyers picked up several hundred head of cheap southern stock steers, two and three year old "yearlings" at $2.75 to $4.50. Stock cows and heifers sold at $3.50 to $5.25, but they did not move as freely as heretofore for some reason, quite a number remaining in the yards at the end of the week. The run to day is 17,000 cattle here, including a fair share of range cattle from Colorado and the southwest. These regions have not had any storms yet to interfere with shipping and considerable loading will be done this week. The market is strong to 10c higher to day, stock cattle and feeders taking the full gain. Dealers say that fat cattle prices are going to be stronger, particularly after the first of the year, in which event we may expect to see feeder buyers competing with killers for half fat steers (itself a very strengthening influence. Short fed steers sold here to day at $7.00 to $9.40, very satisfactory to the shippers of same. Range beef steers sold at $5.50 to $7.35, quarantine beef steers $4.25 to $7.10, range cows, $4.50 to $6.60, heifers up to $7.00, bulls, $4.00 to $5.00, veal calves up to $9.00.

catch the elusive ball. A long signal drill followed by a spurt around the track ended the practice and the men went steaming hot to the gymnasium, feeling that Lincoln will have to play some tall football in order to take this game.

Ernest Alford,
Plunging half back and strong defensive player.

The Illinois men figure that since they took the scalp of the heavy Lincoln team in the first game of the season, playing upon a heavy, muddy field which undoubtedly gave the Lincoln men a decided advantage, that it will be no more difficult to defeat them on a dry field where weight does not give so much advantage. The giant tackles and players of the Lincoln team have no terrors for their Illinois opponents.

Lincoln will without question depend almost entirely upon straight football and Illinois is prepared for that style of game. The amount of teef carried by the visiting team is apparent from the following:

GOVERNMENT GIVES

OUT POULTRY POINTS

Valuable Suggestions Are Made in Bulletin Recently Issued by the Government.

The department of agriculture issues a good many bulletins on poultry and one recently given publication gives a great deal of valuable information. The main facts set forth are as follows:

How to Select Stock.

For farm use the American breeds are probably the best.

Purebred poultry means uniformity of products.

Uniformity of products means increased profits, if products are properly marketed.

Given the same care and feed, purebred fowls will make a greater profit than mongrels.

Subscribe for a good poultry paper.

Artificial and Natural Methods.

A well-ventilated cellar is the best place to operate the incubator.

The machine should be operated according to the manufacturers' direction.

Eggs saved for hatching purposes should not be subjected to high or low temperatures.

Use insect powder freely to exterminate lice when necessary.

If several hens are set in one room, it is desirable to confine them in good nests.

All eggs should be tested by the seventh day, which often makes it possible to reset some of the hens.

Powder the chicks occasionally during the first eight weeks.

Brooder lamps should be cleaned every day.

Chicks should not receive feed until they are thirty-six hours old.

Never mix chicks of different ages.

Confine the hen until the chicks are weaned.

The coop for hens and chicks should be well ventilated, easy to clean, and of sufficient proportions to insure comfort.

Poultry Houses and Fixtures.

Allow at least two square feet of floor space per bird.

Proper ventilation and sunlight means a dry house and healthy birds.

The partly open-front house is conceded to be the best type for most sections.

The colony plan of housing poultry may be adapted to good advantage on many farms. This system does away with the danger of tainted soil.

The roosts should be built on the same level, two feet, six inches from the floor, with a dropping board about eight inches below them.

Good roosts may be made of two by two inch material with upper edges rounded.

How to Feed Poultry.

In order to obtain eggs it is necessary to have healthy, vigorous stock, properly fed.

Nature provides worms and bugs. Poultrymen feed eggs, meat (green cut bone or beef scrap) milk, or cottage cheese.

Nature provides greens. Poultrymen feed lettuce, cabbage, kale, mangles, alfalfa, clover, etc.

A splendid mixture for laying hens is equal parts of cracked corn, wheat and oats, which should be scattered in the litter.

Bran or middlings and beef scraps should be kept in receptacles to which the fowls have access at all times.

Plenty of exercise increases the egg yield.

Provide four or five feet of good, clean litter in which to scatter the grain.

Cabbages, mangles, potatoes, etc., make excellent green feed.

When wet mashies are fed, be sure they are crumbly and not sticky.

Fertile Eggs Favored.

Produce the infertile egg. Infertile eggs are produced by hens having no male birds with them.

Removing the male bird has no influence on the number of eggs laid by the hens.

If possible mark the pullets that lay in the fall, and use them in the breeding pen for the following spring.

Soft-shelled eggs are often caused by fowls being confined, becoming overfat, and from lack of mineral matter.

Products and Prices.

Uniform products command the best prices. Pure-bred fowls produce uniform products.

Small or dirty eggs should be used at home.

Infertile eggs will withstand market conditions much better than fertile eggs.

Vermine, Disease and Treatment.

The free use of an electric lice powder is always in order.

A dust bath is very essential in ridding the fowls of lice.

In applying powder hold the fowl by the feet, head down, and work the powder well down into the feathers.

The free use of kerosene on the roosts in the cracks will exterminate mites.

Whitewash is very effective against vermin.

All diseased birds should be isolated.

Colds and roup. Disinfect the drinking water as follows: To each gallon of water add the amount of potassium permanganate that will remain on the surface of a dime.

Chicken pox: Apply a touch of iodine and carbolic vaseline to each sore.

Gapes. New ground and vigorous cultivation will often remedy this trouble.

Scurly legs. Apply vaseline to the affected parts, and after twenty-four hours soak in warm soapy water. Repeat treatment until cured.

Diarrhoea in hens. Low-grade wheat flour or middlings is good for this trouble.

Bowel trouble in chicks. Well-boiled rice mixed with a little charcoal will often check this complaint.

E. E. Seidles of Chapin paid the city a visit yesterday.

MEMBERS OF LOCAL POULTRY

ASSOCIATION MEET

Last Session Before Show is Held Tuesday Evening—Entries Will Close Monday Afternoon.

Final arrangements for the Morgan County Poultry show, which is to be held at Armory hall beginning next Wednesday, December 4, were made at the regular meeting of the association Tuesday evening in the office of the secretary, W. E. Thomson.

A large number of members were in attendance at the meeting and a very interesting session was held. The Young Men's booster club offered its assistance to the association and the members at the meeting took steps toward getting special badges for the members of the club, and gratefully accepted its services.

An interesting point that was discussed among the members Tuesday evening was the fact that this year nearly all of the spring birds are under weight due to the fact that there were but few early hatches.

Quite a number of people who have thought of entering birds at the show hesitated to make their entries on account of their birds being under weight, but after the discussion a large number decided to make their entries and one member went so far as to predict that there would not be more than one pen of birds entered, that would come up to the standard weight.

A new feature of the show this year is the corn exhibit, which is under the supervision of a committee composed of John W. Cleary, W. H. Paschall and R. C. Reynolds. A cup will be given to the winner in this event and the judges for the contest will be announced later by the committee.

Mrs. John W. Cleary has been appointed superintendent of the egg exhibit.

The cups are expected to arrive in the city in a few days and they will be on exhibit at Rayhill's store and those who wish to secure catalogues and entry blanks may secure them there.

BIRTH RECORD.

Born Wednesday, Nov. 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jeager of Galesburg, a 12 pound son, Leo Ben Jeager.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Ramsey of East Independence avenue, a son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Morrissey, 644 Caldwell street, a daughter, weight 8 pounds. The young lady's name is Ruth Elizabeth.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William Spencer Jr., 1225 South Clay avenue, a ten pound son. Grandfather Spencer is delighted over the arrival of his second grandson.

FIREMEN SET GOOD EXAMPLE.

The action of the firemen in supplying all who come from noon till 5 p. m. Thursday with a bowl of soup, a sandwich and a cup of coffee is certainly a generous deed and speaks well for the gentleman who does the work and foot the bills.

There are persons in the city without a home and some with a home who will enjoy a variety and all will be served at the city building during the hours mentioned. The men say they have lots of soup and will be able to supply all who come.

AWARDS MADE IN MYERS

BROTHERS CORN CONTEST

Denby Ranson Takes Sweepstakes in Exhibit—Other Awards Made.

Judges in the corn contest, which was held by Myers Brothers, completed the awards Tuesday and the sweepstakes prize which consisted of $10 in merchandise, was awarded to Denby Ranson of Rural Route No. 1. For a good many years this firm has held corn contests and a great deal of interest has been aroused in them. This year there were more than forty entries and the judging was made difficult on account of the high quality of the corn. The judges were Chauncey Carter and Ralph Crabtree and the corn was scored according to the standard score card of the American Corn Growers association. The prizes consisted of $5 for first $3 for second, and $2 for third.

A list of the awards follows:

Yellow corn—First, Denby Ranson R. F. D. No. 1; second, Frank Brown, Waverly; third, Harry Kitter, R. F. D. No. 1.

White corn—First, H. J. Rice, Arnold; second, Thomas Donahue, Franklin; third, Chester Hungford, R. F. D. No. 3.

PUBLIC LIBRARY NOTES.

It has always been the custom at the public library to show a collection of children's books, which will be suitable for Christmas gifts, at this time of the year and Miss Webster and her assistants are busily engaged in preparing for this exhibit. This year in addition to the exhibit of children's books there will also be a large number of books suitable for gifts for adults. This exhibit will include a large number of books which have been published this year and also some, which although not new, are of permanent interest. These books have been loaned by the publishers and are not for sale at the library nor do they take orders for them. The exhibit is merely an effort to assist people in making a selection of gift books and it will be ready by Monday.

The library will be closed all day Thursday, Thanksgiving day.

Last month a graded list of history books was issued at the library and a copy of the list was distributed to each of the history teachers of the city. Miss Lutkemeyer is now engaged in preparing a similar list of geography books, the list to cover the period of study from the fourth to the seventh grades inclusive. This is a tremendous task as each book on the subject that is in the library has to be classified, and it is invaluable to teachers. It is expected to have the lists ready next week.

SURPRISE PARTY.

About 25 neighbors and friends gathered at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harding, one and a half miles north of Woodson and gave them a pleasant surprise, Sunday night. The company went in a body to the home and when they knocked at the door at 7:30, it is needless to say that the family was indeed surprised. All took well filled baskets of oysters and trimmings.

The evening was spent in a genuine social manner with games, piano music and singing by four little girls, Marie, Alma and Lucy Winter and Lucille Barnhart and Myrtle Harding. The hours passed all too quickly for the invited guests who will ever recall the event with pleasure.

BOX SOCIAL AND READING.

This evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nicholson, northeast of the city, there is to be a box social and a reading by Miss Jeanette Taylor of this city. The occasion will be delightful and will well repay attendance and at the same time the proceeds will help the good people of Clark's chapel to get some greatly needed stoves. Free.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

The ceremony was said by Rev. Father P. J. Macaulay, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The attendants were Miss Stella Flynn, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Charles M. Miss Alma Flynn played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the church and at the offertory Frank J. Flynn sang Roswige's "Ave Marie" in a most pleasing manner. The bride was attired in a gown of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white roses. She carried a white ivory prayer book with ribbon and a white veil. The bride's maid wore a gown of pink crepe and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses.

Turkey supper at Centenary December 3.
Last Sunday saw another full day at Brooklyn. The chorus gave excellent numbers at the morning and evening services. At night Rev. Dr. Hancher gave a ten minutes talk in behalf of the Woman's college. The pastor introduced his sermon on "Some Ists I'm Not," and announced that he would present the entire discussion next Sunday night.

INTEREST REACHES HIGH POINT IN REVIVAL SERVICE

No Hope for Man Who Depends Upon His Morality to Save Him Says Pastor Evangelist—"Motives of Suicide" Tonight.

The revival services at the Central Christian church last night were well attended and the interest reached a high point. A double quartet of male voices furnished two splendid special numbers and Miss Cora Graham sang a beautiful solo. Rev. H. S. Alkire, of the Brooklyn M. E. church was present and offered prayer. One convert was baptized at the beginning of the service.

The preacher was dealing with the man who depends upon his morality to save him in the evening sermon. He read the story of the conversion of Cornelius and said "You men who pride yourself upon your honesty, your truthfulness and general good reputation in the business world, come and stand beside this centurion, Cornelius, and let us see how well you stand the comparison. The narrative tells us his servants called him a righteous man, and who knows better than those under him the truth about the honesty of their superior? He was a devout man; he stopped his business in the busiest hour of the day to pray, and heaven acknowledged that these prayers had reached the throne of grace. His religion commended itself to the members of his own household, for it is said that 'he feared God with all his house.' He was a generous man; he gave much alms to the people and his prayers and alms are gone up as a memorial before God. How many men here tonight can measure up to the standard of Cornelius? Not one defect in his character is pointed out. Surely, if anybody can get to heaven by his morality, Cornelius can. And yet God sent a special messenger to him to bid him send for a preacher of the Gospel to speak to him the words of life. And if Cornelius needed Jesus Christ to save him, who is there in Jacksonville that does not need the same Savior?"

Mr. Darsie characterized morality as a ladder too short to reach heaven. He said the man who tries to justify himself before God by his own righteousness was like the man who tried to lift himself by his own boot straps. "While one man with God is a majority, that same man, working by his own strength, is a total failure, no matter how strong he may be. It is only by the help of the divine that we achieve any eternal success."

"When Cornelius had heard the message, and the Holy Spirit had fallen upon him, he was pointed to the way of life, and having submitted to baptism, walked the way of the Christian. He was the first Gentile to receive the privileges of the gospel. All the way along the path of his conversion are marks that it was directed by God. And we can come to it tonight as an example of what conversion should be today."

In response to the appeal for volunteers to lead the better life, one man came forward to make the good confession. The meetings are announced to continue two nights longer. The subject for tonight's sermon will be "The Motives of a Suicide." Thursday night the subject will be "A Crown of Thorns." Special emphasis is being laid upon the Thursday evening service.

PASSAVANT HOSPITAL GIFTS.

The Beginning of the Donations Yesterday.

A good number of generous responses to the appeal of Passavant hospital were received yesterday at the institution and it is hoped that the beginning will be well followed up today. The Ladies' Aid society of the Literberry Baptist church made a good deposit with the Heavily Bank when they sent to the institution thirty-six quarts of canned fruits, six glasses of jelly, three sheets, three pairs towels, three pairs pillow cases and a lot of old muslin for bandages.

The noble organization, the Hospital Aid society, sent down a fine new Singer sewing machine, four dozen table napkins, three table cloths, fifteen yards of linen and five bed spreads. There have been in addition canned fruit, jelly, grape juice, pickles, apples, pillows, flour, drinking glasses and other goods.

For the big family at the hospital this is yet a small amount and a great deal more is needed and all friends of good works are urged to assist with gifts today.

SOME REASONS ARE GIVEN FOR WOMAN'S COLLEGE GROWTH

Endowment Committee Points to What May be Accomplished For the College.

The growth of the Woman's college and the reasons there are for the hope of still further development are clearly set forth in the following letter recently issued by the endowment campaign committee: "You have been interested in the story of the founding and growth of the Woman's college and of its rapid advance in the last few years. We are just beginning to see that it has hardly begun to grow; that there is easily possible here a really great college for women, one of the greatest in the whole country. We have an attendance of about 400 students. If we all get together and help as we are able, we can just as well have a college of more than a thousand students. Think what that would mean for Jacksonville!"

"Here are some reasons for this vision of a Great Woman's College:

"First. The growth of high schools. High schools are increasing rapidly, and are becoming more efficient every year. School boards are insisting that all high school teachers must be college graduates. Two or three times as many young women as young men are graduating from these high schools. They are ready for college, and for many young women, going to college is not only the best thing they can do, but it is almost the only sensible thing to do. They are too young to marry, they ought not yet to go into society, and only a very few of them can find work to do. So it comes about that every year thousands of young women are looking for a good college, and this number increases every year.

"Second. The changed attitude of colleges toward co-education. Thirty years ago co-education was the fashion. But now, most of the best co-educational colleges are trying to limit the attendance of women in some way or other, fearing that they are going to crowd out the men. There is now a very great demand for colleges for women, and thousands of young women are coming to prefer colleges of their own.

"The great woman's colleges of the east, Wellesley, Vassar, Smith, Holyoke, are full to overflowing, and have decided not to grow any larger. They now have from 1200 to 1600 students each, and have voted not to make provision for more.

"Now all this means that if Jacksonville will make possible the enlargement of the Woman's college, and will help in giving it adequate endowment and ample equipment, hundreds of these young women seeking a college will come here. And this would mean the bringing of hundreds of thousands of dollars to the city every year."

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ENTERTAIN.

Following the regular meeting Tuesday evening the members of Star Camp No. 171, Royal Neighbors, gave a very delightful entertainment and a fifteen pound turkey was given away. Mrs. Loe Vielva of Myrtle street, being the lucky person. A large number was in attendance and readings and music was furnished by Misses Grace and Minnie Hoffman. A neat sum was realized and the committee in charge of the entertainment was composed of Mesdames Frank, Armstrong, Scott and Runkel.

THE GRASSHOPPER.

"The Grasshopper" is a neat little book by Mrs. Elizabeth Davis Leavitt, of this city, with attractive illustrations by Mrs. Parker Doan. Mrs. Leavitt is the wife of Prof. Leavitt, of Illinois college.

The stories are of every day child life, simply told, and will be of interest, we think, to children of all classes. The symbolism in the stories; the veiling of the moral which is surely there for even the youngest readers; the repetition of certain phrases and ideas, always fascinating to children, all promise to interest and develop the child mind.

The illustrations speak for themselves as being sure to give pleasure to every reader, and at this holiday season will make an appropriate gift.

The book is on sale at the Bargain Book Store.

C. P. & ST. L. TO OPERATE INTERURBAN CARS

Gasoline Driven Motors Will Run Between Springfield and Havana—Officials Visit City in One of the Cars Tuesday—Other Railroad News.

Tuesday afternoon a number of officials of the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis Railway Company, visited the city on an inspection tour, making the trip in one of the company's large gasoline driven interurban cars, which the company will operate between Springfield and Havana.

While all of the details of this plan have not been worked out, none of the steam trains will be taken off on account of this new service, the idea being merely to increase passenger transportation facilities between these two points. The officials who visited the city Tuesday in the car, which is number 100, were very enthusiastic about the plan and said that the car was as comfortable as a Pullman. The men arrived in this city at 12:50 o'clock and those in the party were: W. C. Hurst of Springfield, general superintendent; E. A. Williams of St. Louis, general passenger agent; N. R. Williams of Peoria, traveling passenger agent; C. D. Whitney of St. Louis, general freight agent; John Didcock of Springfield, roadmaster; W. C. Gibbons of Springfield, superintendent of bridges and buildings; C. S. Branch of Springfield, superintendent of motive department. The car was in charge of Conductor Markwood.

The officials visited the car shops and the local agent and also conferred with W. F. Thiehoff of Beardstown, superintendent, and B. Violett of Beardstown, roadmaster of the Burlington, in regard to the grade at the crossing on the College avenue subway. S. P. Henderson of Bloomington, superintendent of the Chicago & Alton, was also here to attend the conference.

R. C. Gentry of St. Louis, traveling passenger agent of the Frisco System, was in the city yesterday on business.

J. G. VanNorsdale of Chicago traveling passenger agent of the Pere Marquette Route, was calling on local railroad men Tuesday.

F. W. Elder of Springfield, division freight agent of the Chicago & Alton, was transacting business in the city yesterday.
